

Jon A. Young Service Award

The North Carolina Cooperative Education Association (NCCEA) voted at the 1989 Annual Conference to present this annual award to an individual who exemplifies the ideals of cooperative education and to give the award in memory of Jon A. Young, a member of NCCEA and an employer representative of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

This award will be presented each year to a member who has made a significant contribution to the mission and goals of cooperative education as outlined in the state association's constitution, ARTICLE III, Purpose and Objectives.

The North Carolina Cooperative Education Association (NCCEA) shall provide an organization for all North Carolina institutions of higher education, employers, and individuals interested in cooperative education.

The specific objectives of the organization shall be:

1. To enhance understanding of the significance and values of the cooperative plan of education.
2. To strengthen the processes of cooperative education through active interchange of ideas and experiences among educators, employers, and students.
3. To provide information about cooperative education to secondary schools, post-secondary institutions, employers, and other individuals.
4. To expand the opportunity for participation in cooperative education.
5. To provide a medium in North Carolina through which a spirit of cooperation among educators and employers may be nourished for their mutual benefit and for the enhancement of education in the state.

Award: A cash award of $100 and a plaque will be presented to the winner at the NCCEA Annual Conference.

Eligibility for Nominees: any current member of NCCEA or former member for at least one year during which he/she was associated with cooperative education.

Nominations: may be made only by NCCEA members. Members of the Jon A. Young Award Committee may not make nominations or be considered for the award.

Nomination Statements will be judged by the Jon A. Young Award Committee, members of which represent three constituencies: two-year institutions, four-year institutions, and employers.
